DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Except for different brickwork at the windows<sup>①</sup> this would seem to have been part of a larger house in combination with CE-150, to which it is connected.

3 bays by 0, 2 stories high of brick painted white, the building, once oblong, is now almost square including additions to the rear and east side. Additions are frame covered with white asphalt shingles. Facing south, the roof/ridgeline runs east-west antiques to CE 150 west door. There is one chimney inside the east end wall.
